MetroNABQ Real Estate Newsletter
Albuquerque's Historic Neighborhoods, Homes, Condos & Real Estate Information

February

Pueblo Revival Architecture: Lean Women in Old Town
&
Sweet Mediterranean-Style Home in
Nob Hill & Monte Vista Triangle Open Sunday

Welcome to my latest MetroNABQ neighborhood: Albuquerque's Old Town, founded in 1706 by Spanish settlers. Old Town is the heart of the Albuquerque Historic District. Here, real estate values & taxes & interest & utilities & repairs & maintenance are all kept in check by the Historic Overlay Zone. Old Town is a fascinating neighborhood. The city's first suburb, the Huning Highland neighborhood, was developed in the 1880's when the railroad arrived. The city's first suburb, the Huning Highland neighborhood, was developed in the 1880's when the railroad arrived. The area's first permanent brick home was built in Old Town in 1706. Old Town is also the area where the first Territorial style adobe homes were built. Old Town is also the area where the first Territorial style adobe homes were built. Old Town is also the area where the first Territorial style adobe homes were built